Pat Albris will carry upon his siender shoulders the hopes of Chief John J. McCloskey and Memphis fandom in the second game of the series with the New Orleans Pelicans carded for Friday afternoon at Russwood. The getaway is set for 4 o'clock. Manager Johnny Dobbs, of the New Orleans club. Is undecided as to who he will use. He may send Clyde Barfoot back at the Chicks. Barfoot was hammered out of the box in the first inning Thursday. In case Barfoot doesn't work, it will be either Tim Murchison, a left-hander, or Hub Perdue, of the right-sided variety.

TRIBE GETS OPENER.

In the ninth, the Pelicans scriously threatened when Larry Gilbert singled and stole second, and Knaupp walked. The double steal was put on, and Gilbert already had third stolen and Knaupp was sliding into second, flow over, the cotton-headed second baseman of the Pels oversild the bag and was tagged out by Lewis, who took Meyers throw, ending the game.

Marty Piedler was up, and Manager Dobbs figured that the double steal would place both men in scoring position, and the two runs thereby accrued would win the game Knaupp gummed the proceedings, however, when he oversild the bag.

Just what Fiedler would have done will forever remain a mystery, for he never had a chance, but Knaupp's oversliding the bag rescued the Tribe from a situation that might have changed the whole complexion of things.

The Chicks came from behind, and overcame a load of three rins. The Pels got only six hits off Vance, but Dazzy was wild and in the fourth he walked Knaupp, which forced Dowie

MACK GETS ANOTHER.

Roy Walker was Manager Dobbed next pitching offering. Roy went well until the sixth, when Polly McLarry hit a home run over the right field wall with nobody on base. In the seventh Vance tripled to left, and Dobbs waved Walker to the shower. Phillips went in, and in the eighth the Chicks scored two runs off him and won the game.

Two were gone in the eighth when High doubled to left and scored the trying run when Meyers singled between first and second, going to second on the throw to the plate. Collenberger's single scored Meyers with what proved to be the winning run. The ninth for New Orleans found Dowle popping to Collenberger, and Torkelson, who batted for Phillips, fanned. Gilbert singled off Collenberger, and Knaupp walked. They then tried the double steal, with fatal results, Meyers peging to Lewis and catching Cotton flatfooted.

BISCHOFF REMOVED.

In the fourth, with one out, Newell Texas leaguered to left, and Dowle singled to center. The double steal was attempted, and Bischoff threw the ball to deep left field. Sloan fell down in the wet turf trying to field it, and Manager McCloskey took Bischoff out of the game and inserted Meyers. Newell and Dowle scored. Walker fanned, and Gilbert singled off Vance, but Knaupp lined to Sloan.

Collenberger got a money shower after he had singled in the eighth, scoring Meyers with the winning run.

Manager Dobbs used three pitchers—Bar'lot, Walker and Phillips, and had Torkelson in the buil pen.

SPORTING SPOTLIGHT By Bob Pigue

Dazzy Vance's return to pitching Dazzy vance's return to pitching form is a very encouraging omen for the Chicks, and the big redhead proved Thursday in the Memphis-New Orleans game that he is back in the proper shape to hurl the variety of ball that has made him one of the most feared pitchers in the league.

the variety of ball that has made him one of the most feared pitchers in the league.

Dazzy has been sick with stomach throuble for the past two weeks, and two Sundays ago against Birmingham he went into the box far from well. He was shot to pieces on the recent road trip of the local club. And this week here at home he has been feeling badly. However, he felt better Thursday and went into the box against the Peis. He had only two bad innings, the third and fourth. He was wild in the third and the Peis bunched three hits in the fourth, although he fanned two Peis in the fourth. But Dazzy says he believes he has his cafeteria in shape again, and that he will be able to pitch his regular brand of ball hereafter.

Rauffman was obliged to pay a fine f $100 for jumping the Vols, after which he was reinstated and the sus-which lifted.
